2 States respecting the regulations and emoluments of recruiting offi-
3 cers; punishment of persons who shall entice a soldier to desert.
4 or shall purchase his arms, uniform, clothing, or any part thereof :
5 and the punishment of every commanding officer of any ship or 6 vessel, who shall receive on board his ship or vessel as one of his 7 crew, knowing him to have deserted, or otherwise carry away any

8 soldier, or refuse to deliver him up to the orders of his command-9 ing officer; and the law respecting the oath or affirmation to be 10 taken by officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and pri-
 11 vates; and respecting the inserting conditions in the enlistments; 12 and all other laws respecting the military establishment of the 13 United States, excepting in such cases where different and specific 14 regulations are made in this act, shall be in force, and apply to all 15 persons, matters and things within the intent and meaning of this 16 act, in the same manner as they would were they inserted at large 17 in the same.

1    Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That no commissioned, or 2 staff officer, who shall be appointed by virtue of this act, shall be 3 entitled to, or receive pay or emoluments until he shall be called 4 into actual service, nor for any longer time than he shall continue 5 therein.

1    Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That in the recess of the 2 senate, the president of the United States is hereby authorized to 3 appoint all the regimental officers proper to be appointed under 4 this act, and likewise to make appointments to fill any vacancies
 5 which may happen during such recess, which shall expire at the 6 end of the next session of the senate thereafter.

1    Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That all commissioned offi-
 2 cers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, appointed 3 or raised by virtue of this act, or any part of them, may be dis-
 4 charged by the president of the United States, whenever he shall 5 judge the measure consistent with the public good.
